AIDS ALLIANCE
FORMERLY KNOWN AS VIAAC

The Entertainment AIDS Alliance will host its 5th Annual Wine & Wisdom: An Evening to Benefit the UCLA CARE Center on:

Thursday, June 21, 6:30-9:30 p.m.
Skirball Cultural Center
2701 N. Sepulveda Blvd., Los Angeles

To date, EAA's wine-tasting event (2003-2006) has raised and donated more than $135,000 to this worthy organization. The UCLA AIDS Institute conducts research in the effort to find a cure for HIV/AIDS and, through its UCLA Center for Clinical AIDS Research and Education (CARE) Center, provides treatment services to people living with this devastating illness.

This summer's eve event under the stars, attended by a who's who in the home entertainment business, will feature artisanal foods, the wines of Australia, musical performance by international pianist and composer Oksana and a silent auction.

The Entertainment AIDS Alliance (EAA), formerly known as VIAAC, was founded in 1989. EAA has channeled nearly $4 million to more than 200 local and national organizations that provide client services to people living with AIDS; institutions which conduct research for AIDS treatment and prevention; and lobbyist groups promoting public policy advancing AIDS issues. Run almost entirely by volunteers, more than 90% of funds raised are distributed.
